To the American Geographical Society:

The Council respectfully submits the following report for the year 1893:

The number of Fellows added to the roll during the year was 55.

For a record of moneys received and expended reference is respectfully made to the report of the Treasurer, herewith presented.

The matter of providing ample accommodation for the increasing library and collections of the Society continues to engage the attention of the Council, and more particularly that of the Committee appointed to raise the funds and to select a site for a new building.

For evidence of the Society's activity in its special field, reference is made to the papers read and published during the year.

The additions to the library number 3,660, viz.: Books 475, pamphlets and periodicals 2,320, atlases 21, and maps 844. Among the works purchased were 62 volumes of the geographical publication Globus; the Hakluyt Peter Martyr, of 1587; Dahlgren's Santa Cruz Map of the World; 6 sheets of Lanciani's Archaeological Map of Rome, and 7 volumes of the Collection of Documents relating to the Discovery of America, published by the Italian Government.

Mr. Edward S. Renwick presented a Kater's Circle, used by Parry in his First Arctic Expedition.

Of the maps added to the library, 19 are the gift of the Swedish Government; 12 are from the Government of India, 30 are presented by the French Ministry of Marine and the Colonies; and the Russian Government has given 575 maps and 4 atlases.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM REMSEN,
